Overcoming the Odds

Zoe Koplowitz has entered more than 15 marathons. She always comes in last. But she is still a winner. Why?

Zoe has a disease that makes it hard for her to walk. Running is even harder. But she enters the 26.2-mile race year after year. Some runners finish a marathon in less than three hours. One time it took Zoe over 33 hours. She never gave up.

Many people think Zoe is brave. She helped carry the torch to the 2002 Winter Olympics.

Write your answers on a separate sheet of paper.
